

Charity appeals to Cameron

CATHOLIC homeless charity Caritas Anchor House has handed a petition to Downing Street calling for intervention over its £1 million VAT bill.

The petition was signed by 102 residents at the charity's residence in Canning Town, east London. Keith Furnett, the charity's chief executive, said: "We urge the Prime Minister and the Government to heed this petition and take action before it's too late."

