

LONDON: A local running duo have raised over £5,000 for Newham homeless charity Caritas Anchor House, by completing the London Marathon last Sunday. Greg Fernet and Dominic Biagioni joined 35,000 people at the event as they ran to raise money for Caritas Anchor House, a local charity which helps those affected by homelessness to turn their lives around. "We have been training for weeks to prepare ourselves for the event, so we're both so happy we've crossed the finish line in under our target time," said Greg. "But to be able to cross it while helping homeless adults in East London is even better." Dominic added: "Caritas Anchor House is seeking funds to expand their services and help more and more people experiencing homelessness and social exclusion in Newham. It's a fantastic charity and I'm proud to have been able to help them. We both thank everyone who sponsored us." The money raised will help the charity to support people affected by homelessness, substance abuse, mental health, domestic violence and crime.

